She knows that she's taking a risk by going off the beaten path in Canada in the Rocky Mountains. She knows that there is no cell service and if she gets hurt that there's no possibility of rescue. She takes precautions, but she doesn't take into consideration the flying thing that comes out of nowhere and scares her out of her mind. She meets up with Avery, a white man that is living in absolute obscurity in a cabin. She doesn't understand why, but she soon finds out that he's hiding a secret that is worth killing for.
