Private vs. Public Operation of Juvenile Correctional Facilities (Criminal Justice: Recent Scholarship)

Gaylene Styve Armstrong

Armstrong studies the environmental quality of confinement in private and public juvenile correctional facilities using data from 48 facilities, representing 4,590 delinquents, 1,362 staff, and 48 administrators in 19 states (16 private and 32 public facilities). Her results demonstrate that neither staff nor juvenile delinquents perceived the environmental quality to be significantly different between private and public facilities. Further, compared to public facilities, private facilities were smaller, newer and had a more intensive admission process for juvenile delinquents. Public and Private correctional staff differed significantly on age and prior work experience. Differences in the juvenile populations were minimal.

Jamie Leal:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Private vs. Public Operation of Juvenile Correctional Facilities (Criminal Justice: Recent Scholarship) can make you really feel more interested to read.
