The work, play and humorous exploits of a group of wayward printing apprentices as they make their living using the antiquated technology of letterpress. In a dusty printing factory, in the grimy dance halls where rock n' roll was the latest craze, in the dingy streets of sixties Edinburgh and on drunken coach trips, the newest apprentice and his hapless cronies relieve the monotony of work by dodging the gaffer, betting on the outcome of Cuban missile crisis, bragging, brawling and dabbling in forgery, fire-raising and fornication as they approach maturity.
