The Christmas Present Alexander McCabe

I have a little secret to tell you that not many people know. Something that maybe your mum and dad don't even know!

You see, at the very moment you were born, Santa allocated you an elf. It's true! Your very own elf who watches to see when you have been naughty and nice. Every year, just before Christmas, your elf reports to Santa so he can decide what presents you can have from your list.

Yet there are some people that don't believe in Santa. I know, I know, it's crazy... but it's true! Once those people stop believing in Santa, then their elf's are sent away from the North Pole and only allowed back when they start to believe in him again. Gabriel the Elf is very worried. His child is beginning to think that Santa isn't real. Gabriel the Elf doesn't want to be banished from all his friends at the North Pole, so what can he do? There is only one thing he can do.

He must prove that Santa is real.
