The Five Love Languages of Teenagers - Parent Study Guide by Dr. Gary D. Chapman takes on the challenge of spanning the proverbial generation gap between adolescents and adults. Using this six-session study, parents and student ministry leaders will learn that even teens understand and show love in different ways some prefer gifts, others physical affection, and still more respond to words of affirmation. These are some of the five love languages that the author explains in the introductory video and subsequent 20-minute video segments. Although these resources won't teach you the latest phrases in the world of slang, they are invaluable for anyone who has a responsibility and a heart for today's teenagers. Because communicating with teenagers is far easier when they know they are loved.
