The Association by which this Directory for Public Worship has been prepared, was formed at a Conference of Ministers and Elders of the Free Church of Scotland, held at Edinburgh in May 1891. The object of the Association, as stated in its Constitution, is to promote the ends of edification, order, and reverence in the public services of the Church, in accordance with Scripture principles, and in the light especially of the experience and practice of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system. The suggestion that such an Association should be formed, and the invitation to the Conference, were contained in a Circular signed by eighteen ministers, namely: Drs Bannerman, Blaikie, Bruce, A. O. Johnston, Laidlaw, Macmillan, Reith, Ross Taylor, Salmond, Walter C. Smith; Messrs T. Crerar, Lewis Davidson, J. T. Ferguson, W. A. Gray, T. B. Kilpatrick, D. M. Ross, David Somerville, and George Steven. In this Circular, those who signed it said they felt that the subject of the Public Worship of the Church called for special consideration at the present time, and that in connection with it there was room and need for improvement in various directions.
