Be Still My Soul is based upon the thoughts and experiences of a mother's acceptance of the Lord's will in behalf of her son as she prepares him for his passing. David Alexander Gow's courage, patience and unconditional love were truly evident throughout his lifetime, but his endurance was greatly tested when he was afflicted with angiosarcoma, an extremely rare, aggressive and cruel form of cancer. David victoriously won this final battle, and the angels surely rejoiced and brought him home!
