Growing up, Clara was sure of only one thing: absolutely nothing. Finally cast off into the world by herself, with a mildly useful degree and a hefty amount of loans, she finds solace in the little things. However, 'little things' for Clara tends to cost money which she doesn't have to spare. Until, one day, her mother provides her with the most fool-proof solution she's sure she's ever heard. She is going to find her a millionaire, and marry him. What she doesn't bargain on is that causing more problems than solving them.
