Character: Who You Are When No One's Looking (Christian Basics Bible Studies) Bill Hybels

Of course you try to do your best when others are watching. But what about when you are alone? That's when character really counts--when it's just between you and God. Six studies, drawn from Bill Hybels's Who You Are When No One's Looking, focus on the qualities that are the foundation of character: courage, discipline, vision, endurance, compassion and self-sacrifice. With this foundation and God's guidance, you can do your best at all times--even when you face temptations and troubles, even when no one is watching.
