This story is about a mother's personal journey to find non-invasive, alternative medical treatments for her twin sons who suffered from Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) since birth. The information she shares presents a holistic approach to treating this condition and hope for families everywhere.

Naturopathic and homeopathic practitioners weigh in on how ADHD can be caused by conditions such as ear infections, brain seizures, and weak neurology, as well as toxicity from artificial food coloring, vaccinations, aspartame, electromagnetic radiation, food allergies, heavy metal poisoning and other environmental toxins.

They also present exciting and innovative approaches to help overcome this disorder that includes chelation therapy, amino acid therapy, the HANDLE approach to analyzing neurological deficiencies, kinesiology and emotional freedom techniques, and more. This book is a valuable resource that can be a lifeline to families facing this challenge.
